Fleece Show Guidelines

- Entry is to be made in the name of the alpaca and current owner(s) as shown on the ARI Registration Certificate or Buyer's Permission to Show form.
- No entries accepted postmarked after July 28, 2007 and No new entries or substitute entries accepted at Check-In.
- The Exhibitor Rule applies. Each owner may enter three (3) fleeces per breed type (Suri), per age division, per color designation.
- This completed Fleece Summary Application form must be sent to the Suri Network office listed above with payment and the following:
 - 1) Copy of current ARI Registration Certificate and Permission to Show form, if applicable, on each entry.
 - 2) Fiber Sample for color analysis. (a pencil size lock from the blanket, stapled to copy of alpaca's ARI Certificate)
- Fleece Entries must be checked into the Fleece Show area at the Holiday Inn Conference Center in Estes Park, Co., no later than 5:00 pm Aug. 16, 2007, and prepared as follows:
 - 1) Each fleece must be presented in its own clear plastic bag with no identifying markers, with a fully completed "Fleece Show Entry Tag" enclosed and visible.
- Mail-In fleeces must be received by 5:00 pm, Thursday Aug. 16th. 2007, at the mail-in address indicated on the Mail-In Instruction Form. If your fleece does not arrive by this time and date, it will not be judged and your entry money will not be returned.
- We are assuming that this will be a Level III Show.
- Please contact Fleece Show Superintendent, Freda McGill, with questions at carl_freda@msn.com or fax to (303) 841-2254.
